Newspaper Articles

Amory has coordinated with the town IT Dept. and members should forward any past articles to her.

Damon to write for November

Pat to write for December

Richard to write for January

Amory to write for February

Becky to write for March

New Business:

Building Reuse Committee Report

Pat to relay the Historic Commissions opinion that it is in the best interest of Town Hall, The Ritter Building, and the Eagle House that they should remain in use and should not be vacated.

Historic Town Center Discussion

Damon has been assigned the task of investigating the future development of the town center as a member of the planning board. At this moment in time the point of moving forward with any center planning relies heavily on the outcome of the Building Reuse Committee.

Richard has done a study of the town tomb, outlined repairs that are needed and he has inquired as to whether there may be grant money available.

Election of Officers

The commission has decided to wait until Spring before electing new officers.
